

Chair's Report and Update – January 2016

As most of you will be aware I moved to Newbury, West Berkshire, UK last year when I retired from working in Essex. Unfortunately we lost our warehouse space at about the same time.

To date I have not found any new premises and I do not have suitable space at my new house. (My mistake to buy a house without a garage!)

However Max helped me pack up a load last April and so that delivery went off to the University of the Free State. This now means we have sent 297 boxes altogether...in total about 20,000 books.

Things are settling down here now so I am about to send details of the charity to our local newspaper to try and find out if anyone has some spare warehouse type space and to get some books in for the next load. I have 5 boxes already towards that.

We have to thank an anonymous donor for a very generous donation of £350.00 towards our shipping costs.

I will do a further update as soon as I have news.

With very best wishes for 2016
